By order of the Corporate Secretary,

Richard Ungarook, Sr.

Section 1.11. Shareholder Proposals

(a) If an eligible shareholder notifies the Corporation of the shareholder's intention to present a proposal for action at a forthcoming meeting of the shareholders and complies with the provisions set forth below, the Corporation shall set forth the proposal in the proxy statement, identify it on the proxy form, and provide a means by which shareholders may vote with respect to the proposal.

(b) To be an eligible shareholder, the proponent of the proposal must, as of the date of the notice of proposal, and thereafter through the date of the meeting, be a record or beneficial owner of voting stock in the Corporation.

(c) A proposal to be presented at an annual meeting must actually be received by the Corporation at its principal executive offices no later than the deadline set for applications of candidates to the Board of Directors.

(d) An eligible shareholder may submit a maximum of one proposal. If the shareholder desires to submit a supporting statement, the statement must be submitted at the same time as the proposal. The proposal and supporting statements shall not exceed 500 words in the aggregate. If the proponent fails to comply with any of the limitations noted above, or if the proposal is in need of clarification, the proponent shall be provided an opportunity, within fourteen (14) days following notice from the Corporation, to make any necessary changes to the proposal.

(e) The Board of Directors may reject any shareholder proposal and omit it from the Corporation's proxy statement and proxy form under any of the following circumstances.

(1) If the proposal would, if implemented, require the Corporation to violate any laws.

(2) If the proposal relates to enforcement of a personal claim or is to redress a personal grievance, or if it is designed to result in a personal benefit to the proponent or to further personal interest which benefit or interest is not shared with the other shareholders at large.

(3) If the proposal is a matter that is not significantly related to the Corporation's business or affairs.

(4) If the proposal relates to any campaign for election to any corporate or public office.

(5) If the proposal deals with a matter that is beyond the Corporation's power to effectuate.

(f) If the Board of Directors opposes any proposal, the Corporation shall include in its proxy statement the proposal and supporting statement of the proponent. The proxy statement may also include the name and address of the proponent. If the Corporation intends to include a statement in opposition to a proposal, it shall, not later than ten (10) calendar days prior to the proposed date of mailing the proxy statements forward to the proponent a copy of the statement in opposition to the proposal.

(g) Unless the shareholder proposal sets out an action that the shareholders are empowered to take under law, the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws, shareholder proposals, if adopted, shall be deemed recommendations to management and shall not be binding on the Corporation.
