Inupiat Community of the Arctic Slope (ICAS) Flag Design Contest Rules

1. Contest open to all tribal members located from the North Slope Region.
2. All tribal members may enter a flag design.
3. Flag Design Rules:
 - Design to be colorful, using up to three colors and possibly other symbols.
 - Colors should contrast well and come from the standard color set.
 - Keep the design simple.
 - Use meaningful symbolism: images, colors, or patterns should relate to what it symbolizes.
 - Be distinctive, avoid duplication of other flags.
 - The year ICAS was formed, 1971 must be on the flag.
4. Flag submissions must be in color on letter size paper (8.5"x11"). This size can be mailed in a letter envelope, also can be emailed to Frederick Brower, ICAS Executive Director frederick.brower@inupiatgov.com.
5. Deadline for flag design to be received by the ICAS is October 1, 2018 5pm.
6. Judging of the flag designs will take place by the Tribal Members attending the ICAS Annual Meeting held in each tribal community across the North Slope Region on August 16, 2018. Ballots will be available at each location. In case of a tie the final selection will be the sole judgment of the ICAS Council Members. ICAS Council Members reserves the right to narrow down the number of entries to be voted on.
7. Ballots will be tallied and winner announced at the next regular ICAS Council Meeting in September.
8. The winning design will be the property of ICAS and shall not be used without the written consent of the ICAS Board.
9. The design selected will be transferred to a 3' x 5' flag for ICAS use.
10. Please complete the attached application form when submitting your flag design and designs can be emailed to Frederick Brower, ICAS Executive Director frederick.brower@inupiatgov.com.
